

01/18/10 - Understanding God's Position on the earthquake in Haiti

In Luke 13:2-5 it states 2 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Do you suppose that these Galileans were worse sinners than all other Galileans, because they suffered such things? 3 I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish. 4 Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were worse sinners than all other men who dwelt in Jerusalem? 5 I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish."

The earthquake in Haiti was not God's judgment on Haiti or because they turned away from God. It was a wake up call to the entire world. There are some truly devoted Christians in Haiti whose sole purpose is to share God's love with the people there. Some believers fell asleep and some non believers died. Some believers still live, and some non-believers still have their life, but aren't really alive. To say it was God's judgment or because they turned away from God would also be condemning the believers to feel the same wrath of God the non-believers face. That would mean the believers lost their salvation which is NOT AT ALL possible. Henceforth it was a very extremely small example by God showing that the end of the world can come at ANY time and believers will be lifted up to heaven and non-believers will perish.

To those who saw the priest say he doesn't know where God was during the earthquake. I will tell you exactly where God was. He was right there with each and every believer who has a relationship with His son Jesus Christ. Right before His children left the world, He told them well done good and faithful servant, it's time to go home. To those who rejected Christ, they judged themselves already. God is always here and always there, and is ALWAYS good and ALWAYS righteous. I know as well as all other believers know exactly where God was, where He is, and where will always be. Thank you God for your mercy and love through your Son Jesus Christ, we will always praise you and glorify your name until the whole world hears! Amen!

Send article as PDF to